

Museum of Art and Archaeology

Presents

2018 Art in Bloom

March 16-18, 2018

Ruth Cobb, (American, 1914–2008)
Old Pear Tree in the Spring, 20th Century
Watercolor on paper
Gift of Mr. E.J. Kahn (65.237)

Participating Florists

- Allen's Flowers
- Columbia Garden Club
- Kent's on Broadway
- My Secret Garden
- MU's Student American Institute of Floral Designers
- MU's Wedding Floral Design Course
- Paisley Bowtique

Participating Organizations

Mizzou Botanic Garden
MU's Museum of Art and Archaeology
MU's Textile and Apparel Management Department
Missouri Historic Costume and Textile Collection

Experience Art and Flowers in a New Way!

FREE and Open to the Public

Mizzou North
115 Business Loop 70 West
(ADA Accessible)

Mid-Missouri florists design and create fresh-cut floral arrangements inspired by the artwork and artifacts found throughout the Museum's galleries.

MU's Missouri Historic Costume and Textile Collection will display costumes with floral themes. These costumes will be accompanied with floral head pieces and jewelry created by students from MU's Wedding Floral Design course.

Friday, March 16th

MA Members and Florist Opening Reception
5:30–7:00pm, Gallery of Greek and Roman Casts

Art in Bloom OPENS to the Public, 7:00–9:00pm

Saturday, March 17th

Art in Bloom, 9:00am–4:00pm, All Galleries

Art in Bloom for Kids (Drop in and create!)
1:00–3:30pm, 2nd Floor Lobby

Museum Lecture: "Crowning the Monarch and Cultivating the Soul: Flowers in Medieval and Renaissance Art"
Alisa Carlson, Curator of European and American Art
2:00–3:00pm, 707 Mizzou North

Sunday, March 18th

Art in Bloom, 9:00am–4:00pm

Sponsored by:
Museum
Associates
In Support of the Museum of Art and Archaeology